ONE-YEAR ONLINE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Vedic Astrology

A classical, methodical and predictive study of Jyotiṣa in the Parāśara tradition

By Shri VishwaVijay Panchang

IN THE LINEAGE OF PT. HARDEV SHARMA TRIVEDI

THE PROGRAM

About the Program

This is an intensive one-year online academic program in Classical Vedic (Pārāśarī) Astrology, designed for serious students who wish to develop a deep, methodical and genuinely predictive command of Jyotiṣa. It is rooted in traditional śāstra, yet taught with contemporary clarity and an emphasis on practical application.

A live online class — reading a birth chart on the digital board.

The course follows the Parāśara school, drawing directly on the editorial and teaching lineage of Shri VishwaVijay Panchang and Pandit Hardev Sharma Trivedi. It is open to those who worship — or are willing to worship — Ved Mātā Gāyatrī as the Divine Mother and who hold the Vedas as sacred. Every class begins with the recitation of the Gāyatrī Mantra as part of the learning discipline.

WHY WE TEACH

Vision & Philosophy

Astrology is not fortune-telling. It is a precise mathematical system for understanding time, karma and cosmic order — and, from these, the shape of what is to come. Our aim is to restore the academic, predictive and ethical foundations of Jyotiṣa as envisioned in the classical texts. Students are trained to:

- ◆ Think astrologically, not mechanically
- ◆ Predict with graded certainty and a clear sense of responsibility
- ◆ Respect śāstra while developing genuine analytical independence

Sāadhanā & Spiritual Discipline

Astrology and sāadhanā are inseparable. In this tradition, an astrologer who has not undertaken sāadhanā is considered incomplete — for the clarity, discipline and inner steadiness that true prediction demands are cultivated through spiritual practice.

Alongside Vedic Astrology and the Parāśara system, students are therefore guided through several sāadhanā paddhatis (methods of practice), including:

- ◆ Gāyatrī Upāsanā and its paddhati
- ◆ Bhūta Śuddhi — the purification of the elements
- ◆ Other sāadhanā paddhatis drawn from the tradition

These are taught as a living discipline, not merely as theory, so that the student's predictive skill rests on a firm spiritual foundation.

A yajña (havan) performed as part of the sāadhanā tradition.

- ◆ Apply daśā, transit, chakra and divisional logic to practical cases
- ◆ Deliver structured, ethical and responsible predictive consultations

Astrology as a Profession

Astrological consultation today is a large and steadily growing field. Across India and abroad, more people than ever seek considered guidance on marriage, career, health, finance and timing — and they value a consultant who can read a chart with genuine skill and responsibility.

For a trained astrologer, this opens a real professional path. Consultations can be offered entirely from home, online or in person, at hours of your own choosing. Many practitioners build a meaningful income from only a few focused hours each day — around seven hours of consultation a day is enough to sustain either a substantial side practice alongside your present work, or a full and independent profession.

This program is built to give you exactly that capability: the depth to predict accurately, the ethics to advise responsibly, and the confidence to establish a practice of your own.
